

Week beginning 12th May 2025

We must start this week's newsletter by celebrating the achievements of our incredible year six pupils who sat their SATs this week. They have worked so hard to be the best they can be and truly shone this week. They look forward to celebrating their achievements by enjoying a special trip to Cornish Segway on Monday to mark the end of their determination and focus this week - so well done Lexi, Eva-Rose, Rune, Max, Indigo, Brendon and Lexi. We are all so proud of you.

Class Dojo

From Summer 2 onwards, ClassDojo will be used only for sharing reminders and general messages with parents and carers. This includes things like upcoming events, homework or uniform reminders, or notices from your child's class teacher.

For matters relating to behaviour, attendance, safeguarding or any concerns you may have, we kindly ask that you contact the school office to either request a telephone call with your child's class teacher or to schedule an appointment. This ensures we can give these important matters the time and attention they deserve to ensure we continue to develop strong home-school partnerships.

We appreciate your understanding and support.
