

GRAMPOUND WITH CREED SCHOOL

Week beginning 24th February 2025

Our visit to Newquay Zoo this week was a roaring success! The children were so engaged and enthusiastic, asking brilliant questions and showing a real passion for learning about their recent science knowledge. The zookeepers were particularly impressed with how respectful and well-behaved our pupils were and the workshops were fascinating! It was wonderful to see their curiosity sparked as they learned about classification, habitats and the importance of protecting wildlife.

We are delighted to welcome Lowenna to our school community on Monday! We know that starting a new school can be both exciting and nerve-racking, but we are confident that she will feel right at home in no time and know that our children will show kindness helping Lowenna settle in.

It is always heartening to hear positive feedback from our parents, and with many more families recently joining our school community, we wanted to reach out and hear their views about how they feel things are going. Thank you for your kind words - they mean so much to us!

Have a lovely weekend. Miss Jane
