Message from Ms Jarrett

To all our children and families...

I hope that everyone had a lovely Easter and managed to get outside in gardens for their 'daily exercise' in the wonderful sunshine we've been having. It seems odd not be welcoming you back to school this week and I am missing all your happy, smiling faces.

I am really pleased that almost everyone is signed up and using either Tapestry or Class Dojo to keep in touch with their teacher and carry on with some learning at home. Please remember that this must not become a burden to you, especially for those parents who are working from home too. If you require any support or guidance, please contact your class teachers and they will be happy to help.

I hope everyone has a good week.. I am thinking of you all.

Stay safe, stay at home.

With all my very best wishes,
Caroline Jarrett

Free School Meals

Further to the letter that was emailed to parents last week, if you need to apply for benefits in the coming weeks or months don't forget to contact the Free School Meal Department at Cornwall Council to see if you are eligible for Free School Meals.

At Celtic Cross Education... we nurture, we learn, we achieve together.

Ellie & Reuben are below after doing some still life art—well done the pictures look fantastic

Whilst taking a walk this week we took these pictures showing how the bulbs have flowered and are looking really colourful in the front of the school.

Message from the Education Library Service

Please find below the web address for a fun but informative site to help children to learn through facts, experiments, games and much more. Although it does say "science kids" on the web address, there are tabs at the top of the page when you open it up that also gives help with English and Maths. Please have a look and hopefully you or your home-schooling parents, will find this of some use. <https://www.sciencekids.co.nz/> We hope that together we can help the pupils, teachers and parents in Cornwall get through this difficult time.

Take care, stay safe.

The creators of the Gruffalo have produced a series of cartoons to encourage people to stay home during the crisis.

Domestic Abuse

On Saturday, the Government launched a new public awareness campaign highlighting that if anyone is at risk of, or experiencing, domestic abuse, they are still able leave and seek refuge. The campaign, under the hashtag #YouAreNotAlone, will create a community around those affected by domestic abuse and reassure victims that support remains available.

We would be hugely grateful for the following support:

- Please post a picture or video of yourself or someone from the organisation with the symbol of a heart drawn on their palm. Tag 5 or more people asking them to do the same to spread the message. Please use the hashtag #YouAreNotAlone in your post.
- Alternatively, please post the attached campaign asset on your channels and tag 5 or more people asking them to reshare, using the #YouAreNotAlone hashtag in your message.

Share the gov.uk/domestic-abuse address where people can find out more information, including helplines. Again, please include the #YouAreNotAlone hashtag.

Here is some suggested text to accompany your social media post:

At home shouldn't mean at risk. If you or someone you know is suffering from #DomesticAbuse, isolation rules do not apply. Police response & support services remain available. Find support at gov.uk/domestic-abuse or call 999 if you are in immediate danger. #YouAreNotAlone
