

GRAMPOUND WITH CREED SCHOOL

Week beginning 13th October 2025

As we head towards the end of a busy half term, this week has been full of thoughtful reflection and here are just a few highlights from across the school.

A huge well done to our Year 5 and 6 pupils who took part in the netball tournament at The Roseland Academy this week. The children played with determination, enthusiasm, and great team spirit – and we're proud to say they finished fourth out of many local schools!

It was a fantastic afternoon and a wonderful opportunity for the team to show off their skills. Thank you to the staff and families who came along to support. Thank you Elliot and Mrs Fryer for taking the children to this event!

Class One have continued their artistic journey this week, exploring the use of line and shape in their artwork. Inspired by the styles of Bridget Riley and Paul Klee, the children have been experimenting with patterns and abstract designs – showing great

This week we are saying goodbye to Miss Coombe as she finishes her time with us. Miss Coombe has been a much-loved part of our school community, and we are so thankful for the warmth, care, and positivity she has shared with both children and staff.

Have a wonderful weekend.

Miss Jane
