Reading Karate Bands

As you know, each week we hold an assembly in the library to award our Reading Karate bands and update our display tracker. We award bands for each 25 reads achieved at home. So far this year we have awarded white bands for 25 reads and yellow bands for 50 reads. This Friday will be the first time we will be awarding orange bands for 75 reads. Well done to everyone who has won a band so far this year. Please remember to keep signing your child's reading record after every read to keep them in the running for their next band. We use the reading records to keep a track of what children are reading, as well as how often, so it's really important to keep them up to date.
