TikTok

Several children have said that they use the app TikTok. The link below gives details of Tik-Tok's new features for setting up a family safe mode so parents have more control over their children's use of the app.

The February Challenge

Every other week throughout February we will be rowing from the harbour, why not take our challenge and get in the boat to see what its all about?

It's completely free for 3 sessions, so give it a go!

Taster Gig Rowing Session

Mevagissey Harbour - East Quay - 15:00

23rd of February

Caring Ceramics

Caring Ceramics uses pottery as therapy. The focus is more on the therapeutic benefits of working with clay rather than an artistic result. You do not need to have artistic ability or special talent to participate, just the will to express yourself!

St Austell Library
Mondays 2nd-30th March 9.30am-11.30am, £4***

This course is run by Gill from Under the Sun Ceramics. There are three sessions to create, one to paint, and one to present the finished works.

If you would like to attend, please book your place in advance in person at the St Austell Library Help Desk. For more information call 0300 1234 111, email st.austell.library@iscornwall.org.uk, or see our Facebook page: St Austell Library
